DROWNED AT OSWEGO.

Charles Hinchey, of Deseronto, the victim.

Particulars have been received of the drowning of Charles Hinchey at Oswego, Ontario, which was made by our Deseronto correspondent yesterday. It appears that the unfortunate man was a wheelman on the steamer Rosedale, which was sunk in the Oswego harbor on Monday night, while endeavoring to make fast a line to the wharf, he missed his footing and fell into the water. He was able to swim, and before assistance could be summoned he had sunk from view. The lifesaving crew was telephoned for and arrived shortly after the occurrence of the accident. Although the darkness coupled with the miserable weather made the work of trying to locate the body almost impossible, yet Capt. Anderson and his crew worked well. The body was in the vicinity was dragged and about half an hour after the occurrence the body was brought to the surface. Dr. Hinchey was called but an examination revealed the fact that every vestige of life was extinct.

The body was shipped to Deseronto for burial. Decided was a widower. His father, mother, sisters and brothers reside at Deseronto. Mr. John Hinchey, a Quaker, is a cousin of the unfortunate man.

Very Appropriate.

Jacques has received the following reply:
"Mr. McKinley begs to acknowledge the receipt of the recent favor of Dr. W. S.
Jacques, and to return sincere thanks for his generous congratulations and expression of good wishes."

OTTAWA'S BIG FIRE.

$400,000 Goes up in Smoke at the Capital.

OTTAWA, Dec. 3.—The most destructive fire Ottawa has known for many years broke out at 1 o'clock this morning in the basement of Mrs. Turner's confectionery store, on Sparks St. The fire had gained great headway before being discovered and by the time the firemen had got down to work the building, with McDonald Bros.
gentlemen's furnishings establishment adjoining, was in a state of flames. The brigade could do little to check the progress of the fire and it was not until these buildings, together with Holbrooks' tailor shop, over which was the Masonic Hall and the long dry goods establishment of the C. Ross Company, had been destroyed, that the firemen got it under control. The Dominion Methodist Church and the Brimwick Hotel both had a narrow escape from destruction. The total loss is placed at $400,000; partially insured.

are hard, expensive suits are not moving, and we have a lot of them. First choice is generally the best.

Ontario Provincial Fat Stock Dairy Show.

A letter has been received in the city,
along with a premium list of the Ontario Provincial fat stock and dairy show, which will be held in Gu. Iph, December 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th. Upwards of $4,000 is offered in prizes. At the same time the Ontario meeting of the Dominion Cattle, Sheep and Swine Breeders' Association will be held at the same place. The fat stock show will be held at different points in the Province.

The Executive Committee of the City Council will be called together to discuss this matter and take such action as may be deemed advisable to have the show held here in 1897.

The holding of this winter show in our city would be a good thing for the whole country. It would give us a large sum of money, and it would be a good thing for the city. It would be a good thing for the city. It would be a good thing for the city.

A Secret Discovered.

We have discovered where those large departmental stores in New York, Boston and Philadelphia buy their values and stockpile their goods. We purchased a lot to get the best discount. The goods are here. We put on a small profit and expect a large sale. Call and look at them. You never saw such a lot of goods for so little money.—HAINES & LOCKETT.

15th Battalion, A. L. I.

Captain R. A. McGuinness lectured last evening in the Sergeant's mess room upon the British army, tracing its development and comparing its growth with that of foreign countries. The origin of the Annual Meeting Act and Standing Army Act, the territorial organization of different regiments, the early employment of infantry and the close and open formation in the field, the changes in armament and in length of service were all interesting and at the close Col. Patton reviewed the different subjects spoken of and gave some illustrations and anecdotes.
He congratulated those present upon having the privilege of hearing these lectures, historical and educational addresses of Capt. McGuinness, whose style is simple and clear, and who is evidently in love with his subject.

Failure Impossible

When Nervine—cure pain cure—is applied. It matters not of how long standing, its penetrating and pain subduing power is immediately felt. It is never inferior. Nervine

FIRE IN THURLOW.

House and Barn Burned—Loss Estimated at $10,000.

Between 6 and 7 o'clock last night, fire broke out in Dr. Sing's dwelling, a large brick house—in the 2nd concession of the city. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the family were almost the place was soon a mass of flames. The fire was seen by a number of Grand Trunk men, who saw a portion of the furniture and the fire stock, but could not prevent the spread of the fire to the two barns, which were both destroyed.

The house was valued at $3,000, and the barns at $7,000, and their contents at $200. making a total loss of $10,000. Insured in the Commercial Union for $14,000 on the dwelling and $500 on the barns.

Matrimonial.

Miss Beattie Cummings, daughter of the late Mr. Wm. Cummings, and sister of Mrs. A. Brignall, of this city, was wedded at her mother's home in Port Huron, on the 2nd inst. to Mr. H. Bradburn, son of Mr. Thos. Bradburn. The bride and groom were married by Rev. Mr. Bradburn, who was charmingly groomed in white silk, with chiffon and pearl trimmings. She wore a handsome cream silk dress, which was the gift of the groom, and also carried a large bouquet of flowers. The bride's mother, being deceased, was not present. The wedding was attended by her brother, Mr. E. H. Bradburn. The bride's friends in this city were present in a large number on the auspicious occasion.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

Pleasant and Profitable Gathering of Educators.

A convention of the teachers of T. Ont., Deseronto and Belleville was held in the hall of the Central School, on Friday last, beginning at 9 a.m. This is the first of a series of conventions which the Inspector has been holding in the different townships of this Inspectorate.

The first subject taken up was that of letter writing, by Mr. Johnston, who, after speaking of the importance of this subject, pointed out the many mistakes that are made in writing letters, particularly in punctuation and arrangement.

Composition, by Mr. Sturges, was the next subject taken up, in which he gave a faithful representation of the very great importance of this subject and explained his method of teaching it. In the discussion which followed, Mr. Sturges, Messrs. Hicks, Frapp, Fairman, Luck and Winterhouse.

Mr. P. W. Fairman explained his method of teaching geography, illustrating with the map of Africa, showing how he would teach the physical features, climate, productions, inhabitants, their occupations, etc.; he would give notes to be written down, and would constantly refer to the same.

Mr. O. S. Hicks followed with grammar to Third and Fourth grades, his method of classifying of simple sentences and their analysis, the different parts of speech, phrases and clauses, and their classification, parsing, punctuation. The subject was handled with Mr. Hicks' usual clearness and thoroughness, and thoroughly if one wishes good results.

He then gave a careful explanation of his method of teaching, illustrating by lessons selected from the tables.

Phonics, by Mr. Frapp, was the next subject discussed. He began by the word method, teaching them a number of words sufficient to get all the sounds required, and from the sounds thus taught build up other words. The great thing in teaching this subject is to proceed systematically, thoroughly if one wishes good results.

Mr. Winterhouse, of Trenton, pointed out a number of discrepancies in grammar, geography and arithmetic found in our authorized text-books.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, Belleville Board of Education, gave a short address, and in the course of his remarks, commended the teachers of Hastings on the efficiency of the work done by them, expressing the hope that the time was near when the salaries of male and female teachers would be the same.

A number of the visiting teachers, at the close of the convention, went through the building and expressed their appreciation of the improved appearance of it.

Very Appropriate.

Now is the time to choose Xmas presents before the rush. For a present for grandfather or grandmother nothing could be more appropriate than a pair of Spectacles. We have a large assortment at low prices. - ALEX. RAY, druggist and optician.

OLD WAR HORSE.

A GRAND ARMY MAN CROSSES SWORN WITH DEARLY TREASON AND WINS A GLORIOUS VICTORY WITH THE AID OF HIS ARMY'S VETERAN FOR THE HEARTY.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart can be over-stated, says H. R. West, of Port Huron, Mich. "My ailments were palpitation and fluttering of the heart. I used two bottles of your valuable cure and feel like a new man. I have taken bottles and bottles of other medicines without help. I am now a healthy man, and feel better than I have for many years. I can truly recommend your medicine to all who suffer from heart trouble. I have tried it myself. Sold by R. Thompson.

Royal Arcanum.

The regular annual meeting of Belleville No. 860 of the Royal Arcanum was held last night, when the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Regent - John Parker Thomas.
Vice-Regent - John S. Marsh.
Orator - W. J. Diamond.
Chaplain - Dr. J. E. Green.
Past Regent - Jeremiah P. Thompson.
Collector - A. G. Northrup.
Secretary - J. L. London.
Treasurer - S. S. Lazer. A. Bignall and J. W. Batterham.

Medical Examiner - W. J. Gibson, M. D.

The report shows the Order to be in a prosperous condition, there being a present membership of over 180,000 and steadily increasing. There are a number of applications now on hand. The Order Grand Council shows a healthy state of affairs, and the liberality and fair dealings of the Supreme Executive is greatly appreciated by the Order.

The Order is very popular, as one of the best fraternal societies on the continent.

TRAVELLER HALF THE GLORE TO FIND HEALTH WITHOUT SUFFERING.

TOOK THE ADVICE OF A FRIEND AND NOW PROCLAIMS IT FROM THE ROADSIDE. "SOUTH AMERICAN REMEDY SAVED MY LIFE."

Mrs. H. Stapleton, of Wingham, writes: "I have been very much troubled for years since 1875 with nervous indigestion, dyspepsia. Had been treated in Canada and England by the best physicians, but without permanent relief. I was advised about two months ago to take South American Remedy, and I firmly believe I owe my life to it. I can truly recommend it to all who suffer from heart trouble. I have tried it myself. Sold by R. Thompson.

Before the Magistrate.

Peter Barry, Jr., of the Indian Reserve, is charged by James Cummings with obtaining harness and two horses from him by fraud. He got the goods with an understanding that he would give an order on the Indian Agent at Deseronto for whatever balance might remain due. This he did do; but repudiated the order when it was presented to the Agent, and stated that the order was a forgery. Since that time Mr. Cummings has not received his pay. The case occupied the attention of the court all the morning and was enlarged till Friday.

Fairland's Evening Play.

Fairland will make its formal bow to the public on Saturday next, the 6th of December. Since the closing days of the year's Christmas Carnival we have had a large space and our accommodations. We will have more elbow room to give our beautiful display a better showing.

What's new? Everything new - we cannot enumerate. We would like to tell some anxious shoppers to have a little peep into our window and see our exhibit. It will more than surpass other shows.

Don't let us go. We have Fairland fairly laid upon you at the last possible moment with bright new goods such as you have not seen before.

There is no mistaking the pleasure of the recipient of a gift when he or she has been able to get it from the shopping establishment of Fairland during Christmas trade, marks it as the gift-buying center of Belleville.

THEIR FINAL GATHERING.

The Reeves and Deputy Reeves of the County of Hastings will be in session as a Council for the last time next Monday. With the passing of the present year passes away the old Council and the system of representation by districts will succeed it. Whatever may be said of the cumbersome and expensive of the old institution, no one will deny that it was composed of a fine body of men. They made their visits to the city agreeable and pleasant. Belleville welcomed their coming and wished them good luck when they went from us. No matter who may be chosen to fill the fourteen chairs that in future will surround the County Council board, many old faces will be missed and many friendly meetings that have brightened the past will never be repeated.

SETTING OUT POISON.

As noted in the INTELLIGENCER's news columns recently, a number of dogs and cats have been killed in the city by poison which had been, it can hardly be doubted, set out for that purpose. It is inhuman and distinctly to severely kill animals which are by law allowed the freedom of the streets, is a monstrous and an annual tax paid to the municipality. If dogs do damage their owners can be prosecuted, but not who may suffer loss or damage by dogs may not take the law into their own hands. It is just as criminal, an act to poison a dog, it is to poison a cow or a horse, and it is the duty of the police authorities to discover, if possible, and prosecute the poisoner in the same way as they deal with other offenders against the law.

TWO MANY MEMBERS.

The old story of there being too many members in the City Council has of late been revived. The plebeians which was the cause of the question of reducing the number of wards was largely in favor of a reduction; but the public verdict has been disregarded. If those who have re-elected the mayor are in "dead earnest," and not "dead drunk," why have they not forced the question in the Council Chamber? Having failed in this particular, let the electors make it an issue at the coming election.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

Mr. Hugh Nickle, of Kingston, says that the rails used in the Belleville street railway are not of the proper pattern for a street railway, but are of a pattern which make provision in that regard when considering the charter under which the Company were virtually given carte blanche to the streets and bridges.

THE ACCOMMODATING RAILROAD.

Our reporter had occasion to note Thursday morning Grand Trunk Railway car filled with household furniture standing in front of the Bank of Montreal. The G.T.R. and G.J.R. are accumulating in these days, of "up to date" ideas. You can have freight delivered at the front door.

THE AMBULANCE.

If the ambulance is to be driven at a furious gallop every time it is called out, irrespective of the necessity for speed, as has been done in the past, it will soon be wrecked. This is a matter worthy the consideration of our municipal rulers.

Those Boys' Suits are Selling.

The Oak Hall advertisements in reference to the big discount on boys' expensive two-piece suits are being readily availed of. Is it any wonder? We only advertise what we mean and never fail in carrying out to the letter just what we agree. We have already been asked for discounts on boys' two-piece suits, but please remember 20 per cent off, only on boys' two-piece suits $4 and $5. No others.

IT'S NO FAITH.

BUT MY WIFE PERSUADED ME TO TRY THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN REMEDY. AND MY AGONYING PAIN WAS GONE IN 12 HOURS, AND GONE FOR GOOD.

J. D. McLeod, of Leith, Ont., says: "I have been a victim of Rheumatism for seven years, and have tried every medicine, but without permanent relief. I was advised about two months ago to take South American Remedy, and I firmly believe I owe my life to it. I can truly recommend it to all who suffer from heart trouble. I have tried it myself. M. R. Laster, latter, Yonge st., Toronto formerly of this city, has assigned.

Don't forget tonight to see "Gloria Girafa," full of rich musical gems.

See Miss Ransome in her famous dances as danced by her before the Governor-General.

There are only one civil case and two criminal cases down for the County Court to-morrow.

To-morrow will be a busy day in court circles—High Court, County Court, County Council and County fair sale.

One feature of the performance of the Gilbert Opera Company is, the curtain only falls twice during the whole performance.

This is Division Court day. A large number were in attendance. It was adjourned till Friday next at 10 o'clock by Judge Laster.

The funeral of the late James Berry took place at 8 o'clock this morning to St. Michael's church, and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

If you want to laugh see Thorne tonight in "Gloria Girafa" at the Carman Opera House. He has created roars of laughter wherever he has appeared.

Don't forget tonight at the Carman Opera House, "Gloria Girafa." Come and see Messrs. plan his love and keep his wife's parents out of a terrible dilemma.

Miss Leclair, who plays the role of the twin sisters in tonight's "Gloria Girafa," has a voice and presence on the stage that have won her the best of prizes in association with comic opera.

Honest Clothing.

There are hundreds of ways of making clothes wrong, only one way making them right. That is the right way. It is the only making and trimming correct. Some manufacturers pay double for cutting and making that others do. Some clothes fit and look natty—none fit. Do you know why? Because the tailoring is wrong. Cheap labor and cheap trimmings are good for nothing but the so-called cheap clothing dealers. The Oak Hall hand clothes made with cloth, good workmanship and honest trimmings.

From the Golden State.

Mr. Louis Bonmore has written from Reno, Cal., to Mr. J. T. Osborne a pleasing letter, in which he states that he had seen Dr. and Mrs. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Rutherford, Mr. Dr. Skinner and family and Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, all former Bellevillians. On Thanksgiving day he dined with Dr. and Mrs. Walker and supper with Mr. and Mrs. McDonald.

He had a thorough examination of his physical condition made by Dr. Walker, who told him that he was progressing favorably and that within a month he will be "all right."

Very Appropriate.

Now is the time to choose Xmas presents before the rush. For a present for grandfather or grandmother nothing could be more appropriate than a pair of spectacles. We have a large assortment to choose from at low prices—ALEX. RAY, Druggist and optician.

Reformed Episcopal Church.

Yesterday morning Rev. J. S. Trotter's subject was "God's hidden ones." Holy communion at 10 a.m. In the afternoon Mr. Trotter conducted an interesting service at the hospital. In the evening he preached his fourth sermon from the 6th chapter of Isaiah. Seekers after God will find a good address to the Sunday School in the afternoon.

Yes! Yes! Yes!

Sergeant Sanford will march to the top of your chimney, and keep it out of short notice, which may prevent a fire. Residence 7140 Dundas st. to doors south of Dundas.

—B. A. Sanford.

TO THE CONSERVATIVES

HASTINGS AND PRINCE EDWARD!

At the recent general meeting of the Conservative party of this province, held at Toronto, the province was divided into divisions for the purpose of organization.

The constituents of East, West and North Hastings and the County of Prince Edward were constituted No. 6 Division, of which I was appointed Convenor.

I now, in that capacity, invite ALL Conservatives in the district named to meet at

Power's Opera House, Bridge St., Belleville,

The Assizes.

Argument in the case of Dominion Bank vs. Warrington and Dominion Bank vs. Greenisholm lasted all day yesterday at the conclusion of which Judge Robertson reserved judgment.

Cook vs. Warrington was heard this morning. This was an action when put William Cook of this city to recover a percentage of the profits of business carried on by J. J. Cook and W. W. Warrington. The claim was for a profit of some $27,000. Defence set up that the business was not a partnership and that the action was premature. Action dismissed. Clute, Williams & Morden and D'Alton McCarthy, Q. C., for plaintiff, E. G. Porter and Chas. Moss, Q. C., for defendant.

A Practical Joke.

Two well known law students sat in the office of one of their law firms last evening, deep in the discussion of some knotty point of law and well-filled pipes when they were aroused by the telephone. One of them answered and told them that a man was waiting and wanted his law drawn at once. His address was given as Pinnacle st., seven doors west of Ward st. Of course, this was an opportunity not to be missed and the making of a law and the two young lights hastily collected their "stomachs" and then they walked, as neither of the young men felt quite equal to the task. They finally decided to take to the street. They searched for the client, but they were not long in securing the service of a man to assist. Then the search for the client began. They explored Pinnacle st., completely from end to end, but they did not find it. They then dashed down the street, but they were more than puzzled to find that "the seventh house below" they had been made the victims of practical jokes and they were endeavoring to ascertain to-day who summed them.

OBITUARY.

Mr. James Johnston, formerly of the Customs Department, Ottawa, died at San Francisco on the 27th inst. in the 80th year of his age. Mr. Johnston entered the service of the Customs Department of New Brunswick in 1857, and at Confederation was removed to Ottawa, where he assisted in the establishment of the Customs Department. In 1867 was promoted to the highest position in the service, that of Deputy Head, where he served, until Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, for 13 years, was a good officer, and an exemplary man in every walk of life, respected by all who knew him.

MUNICIPAL NOMINATIONS.
Ald. J. W. Johnson Elected Mayor by Acclamation.

The Other Nominees Withdraw in the Face of Speeches by the Mayor Elected and Several Other Gentlemen - The Ward Nominations - Nominations Elsewhere.

There was very little stir occasioned today by the Municipal Nominations, which were held for that Mayor in the City Hall from ten to eleven o'clock, and for Aldermen in the various wards from twelve to one o'clock. The proceedings at the City Hall passed off very quietly.

At 10 o'clock Mr. D. R. Robinson, City Clerk, as Returning Officer, took his position on the platform in the City Hall. There were only a few spectators present, but before 11 o'clock there were two or three hundred present and the number increased till the 11 o'clock the following nominations were made:

ALD. COLLINS was nominated by Mr. W. C. Mikel, seconded by Ald. Lennox.

ALD. J. W. JOHNSON was nominated by Mr. Arthur Lewis, seconded by Mr. Walter Alfred.

MAYOR WAINSWAY was nominated by Ald. Collins, seconded by Ald. Hangerford.

ALD. W. A. HANGERFORD was nominated by Mr. Geo. Denmark, seconded by Ald. Wallace.

At 11 o'clock the Returning Officer declared the nominations closed and called the following gentlemen to the platform: Mayor Wainstay, Ald. Johnson, Ald. Collins, Ald. Lennox, W. C. Mikel and Walter Alfred. When order was secured speeches were made by the nominees and their supporters.

Mr. W. C. Mikel was the first speaker. After a few felicitous remarks he referred to several matters of public interest. He thought the city could get more revenue from the logs which annually pass through the city harbor, or force the owners to manufacture them here. He suggested the establishment of a labor bureau for the benefit of the laboring people and those who have work to do. (Applause.)

Ald. Lennox was next called upon. He thought Ald. Collins had done well. He would be repaid by a seat in the Mayor's chair, but he understood Mr. Collins would stand.

Ald. Collins was next called upon and he was received with applause. He said there was a time when he had aspired to the Mayor's chair, but that desire had been eradicated. His record as an Alderman was not good, but he was not ashamed of it. He mentioned a few reforms which had been enacted during his term of office. He was not a candidate for either the Mayorship or for Aldermen. After thanking his supporters he sat down amidst applause.

Mr. Walter Alfred, as second speaker, was next called upon. He said he supported Mr. Johnson, because he had a personal knowledge of his ability as an Alderman. He was satisfied he would fill the position with honor to the city and himself. He said there were many things the citizens wanted the Aldermen to do next year, and there was something which they did not want them to do. One of these was the expenditure of money on the island in the harbor as a park. There were plenty of parks within easy access of the city. He would rather see any surplus money spent in assisting struggling industries of the city. (Applause.)

Ald. J. W. Johnson said when he stood on the platform a year ago and heard his friend Ald. Yeomans lay before the electors a statement of his stewardship during 1895, he looked forward to the pleasure of seeing him elected Mayor for 1897. No man in the community was better fitted for the position, or had earned it with greater zeal for Belleville's prosperity, or devotion to its interests. The brilliant campaign came on the 19th of October and depicted the community of its foremost merchant, and the Council of its ablest member; a man whom the people trusted, who had gained their confidence by bringing into the Council those business methods and principles which he was accustomed to apply in his private affairs.

He like we shall not look upon again. He (Ald. Johnson) had been chosen to fill the seat left vacant by his deceased friend, and he was now a candidate for election to the chair which he would undoubtedly have been called to fill.

The position of Mayor and Aldermen is a great trust, not to be lightly undertaken. We are a community made up of individuals, each having his own particular business. Beyond the individual interests are the public interests, which appear to us as citizens; a community of interests, which includes good government, the promotion of public enterprise and protection to life and property. The advancement of our individual interests is largely influenced by the manner in which our public affairs are administered. It is therefore the burden of duty of each of us to concern ourselves in municipal affairs.

We make the Aldermen our agents; our ballots give those elected power of attorney for us in matters vital to our welfare. As you would choose out men of sound judgment and reliable character to act for you in private matters, so you should choose men of the same type to attend to your public interests.

It should be a legitimate and laudable ambition for every Alderman who serves the public faithfully to aspire to the position of Mayor. The Mayor's chair should be reserved for such services. He did not consider any man competent to fill the Mayor's chair who had not served at the Council table, and proved his devotion to duty, sacrifice of time and ability, that he was worthy of promotion, and of the people's confidence. Some excellent citizens had been recently named for the position, who have not been Aldermen; he would like to see these gentlemen know at once to the place of nomination and submit their names to the Council. Such men are needed.

Ald. Johnson advocated a change in the law by which the term of service for Aldermen should be increased from two years to one-half of the Council to go out in any one year. He also advocated the reduction of the number of Aldermen. There were, in his judgment, too many. He wanted more stability in the representation, so that the services of good and tried men may be available. We will thereby secure system and avoid waste.

The election themselves aften urge Aldermen to wasteful expenditures. A plank in a sidewalk becomes rotten or a house becomes half decayed before it is entirely new sidewalk. They would not act on this principle in their private affairs. When as certain business day and night when holes appear, they don't rush off and buy a new one; when a chair gets weak they cover it over; they repair it. In public affairs we ought to be just as economical as in private affairs, and Aldermen should have the same idea in mind when demands that are not justifiable are made upon them. Providence intended that the services of good and tried men may be available. We will thereby secure system and avoid waste.

In public affairs we ought to be just as economical as in private affairs, and Aldermen should have the same idea in mind when demands that are not justifiable are made upon them. Providence intended that the services of good and tried men may be available. We will thereby secure system and avoid waste.

This concluded the speech-making and the Returning Officer declared Ald. J. W. Johnson elected Mayor of the City of Belleville for the year 1897, by acclamation, all the other nominees having retired. The crowd dispersed in a very orderly manner.

ALDERMANIC NOMINEES.
Nominations for Aldermen was held in the seven wards of the city between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock. There will be contests in all but Blocker Ward, where the election was by acclamation. It is quite likely that some of the nominees will withdraw before polling day. Following were the nominees made:

FOURTH WARD—Charles Petty, Edward Taylor, E. H. LaRoche, Jas. Mackie, jr., and Jas. R. Budge.

SIXTH WARD—W. A. Hangerford, S. E. Lennox, Jas. Gordon, Curtis Bogart and J. A. Marshall.

KITCHEN WARD—Jas. A. Chisholm, J. A. Campton, Jas. Starling, J. E. Wainstay, W. H. Ketcheson and Cameron Brown.

SEVENTH WARD—Jas. Doyle, A. Wallace, A. T. Petrie, J. E. Wainstay, John Harry and S. D. Lister.

BLOCKER WARD—D. Hay, P. Milne and W. H. Wainstay, by acclamation.

COLEMAN WARD—Thos. Linscombe, I. O. Frost, S. T. Harris, F. Landenberger, W. H. Lingham and Jacob Finkle.

MURPHY WARD—W. Lattimer, Wm. Parter, N. B. Falkner, L. Grills, A. Robinson and F. W. Breece.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE NOMINATIONS.
The nominations for School Trustees took place for the first time today at the same time and place as those for Aldermen. Following were the nominees made:

FOURTH WARD—John Martin, (by sec.)

SIXTH WARD—Dr. Sprague and F. E. O'Flynn.

KITCHEN WARD—Wm. Johnson, (sec.)

BALDWIN WARD—W. W. Chown, F. Asplund and Arthur Wainstay.

BLOCKER WARD—Dr. Tracy, (by sec.)

COLEMAN WARD—R. Bogle, (by sec.)

MURPHY WARD—I. Diamond and D. J. Fairfield.

Mr. S. A. Moore, who has been Chairman of the Board of Education for the past two years, and a member of it since 1881, did not seek re-election. In his place Mr. O. Flynn and Dr. Sprague have been nominated.

Mr. Wm. Johnson was for the twelfth time elected by acclamation for Kitcheson Ward. Mr. Johnson has been a member of the Board since January, 1873.

As this was the first time that the nomination of Public School Trustees was held at the same time and place as for Aldermen, more interest than hitherto is taken in the election. It will be remembered that after having for several years advocated this in the Board of Education, it was successful last year in getting a majority of the Board to agree to the proposition.

It is about the idea that this faction has of governing a country.

There can be no doubt, however, that the Quebec Government would be glad to be rid of the incubus, which will soon prey heavily upon its resources. It looks very much like a deal between the original parties, Beaudry, and the Liberal faction, watching its progress is a duty devolving upon all the taxpayers.

QUALIFICATION OF COUNTY COUNCILLORS.

CANTON, Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Mr. Beaudry—Would you kindly inform me what is the qualification of a County Councillor? And if, under the new regulations, a non-resident person can sit as a County Councillor for a district, it is added within two miles of the district and is based on the assessment roll. What, if any, changes have been made in the new law?

THURLOW RATERFATHER.

Beaudry's Note.—The qualification of a County Councillor is the same as that for a Reeve, except in respect to residence; in which latter case (that of a Reeve) a person properly assessed on the last revised assessment roll, and living within two miles of a municipality is qualified. The property qualification for Reeve in townships is $400 freehold, or $800 leasehold, assessed on the last revised assessment roll, in the person's own name or the name of his wife, and which amounts must be free and above any lien, encumbrance or charge on the property. Actual occupation of a property assessed for $2,000 or more would also give qualification without reference to encumbrances, etc.

Your second question has been lately before the Council. Our opinion, from the standpoint of a layman, is that no person except an actual local resident of a County Council District is entitled to be elected and sit as member for that District. In the County Council, a person other than an actual resident at the time of his election, elected for that district would be disqualified and not entitled to take his seat; and that any taxpayer could apply to the court to have such person disqualified. In fact, as we understand it, such a person could not take the oath of office required to be taken by a Councillor without committing perjury. The law requires that a person must be a resident of the County Council District of the law passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature changing the constitution of the County Councils. Clause 5 of Cap. 32, "An Act to reduce to number of County Councils," passed in 1896, reads as follows:

"Each such division shall be designated by its number as, for example, the 'First County Council Division' and the members of the County Council by the number of the law passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature changing the constitution of the County Councils. Clause 5 of Cap. 32, 'An Act to reduce to number of County Councils,' passed in 1896, reads as follows:

Another Process.

We have been shown a letter, received by a prominent gentleman, who is one of the oldest established firms of chemical engineers in England, offering to erect a plant for the treatment of our refractory ore at Marmora. The process is not a new one, having been in use since the early days of the Valley of California, and the Black Hills for a long time, but has been so improved, that it is claimed, does not exceed $1 per ton. Another important feature of this process is the fact that the arsenic, as well as the gold, is saved, and a high value is placed upon our arsenic by this firm.

A MILLINERY LESSON.

The SEVENTH OF THE PRACTICAL SERIES BY AN EXPERT.

The Possibilities of Ribbon Bows Fully Illustrated in This Lesson—A Hat with High Bow at the Back—A Hat with Ribbon Trimming.

It would be difficult to find two better examples of the possibilities of ribbon than the hats illustrated in this lesson. Fig. 1 shows a bow placed exactly at the back of the hat. The design is one of the newest, and shows the hat turned up at the back in the shape of a shell. A quarter yard of ribbon is required. You will notice that there are three ends, three loops of medium size, and one long one, besides the tie-over. The ends are to be cut with scissors, without cutting the ribbon more than once, and that only because there are several ends. The third end is the finish as it comes from the tie-over; the two ends are really one piece. You can always save a bow with strong thread, gathering the ribbon and drawing it up as described in lesson No. II, but for large bows of stiff ribbon it is generally better to use the good wire mentioned in the last lesson. This is used in place of thread, taking about a yard of wire. Do not use too much, about three twists are sufficient. For each loop, be careful that the ribbon is gathered, and especially evenly, gathered together before you start winding the wire around.

The wire is carried from one loop to the other in the same way as you would use thread, without cutting. The ribbon used on this hat was a Dresden silk in very soft shades, a gray ground with an indistinct pattern in dark blue and brown. The hat was dark blue, and the ribbon showing at the back were blue also. There was a fanny buckle, and a dark blue silk just in front of the high loop.

On the hat Fig. 2 there are four yards of wide ribbon, and of the narrow velvet ribbon which you will notice drawn across the front and through the buckle there are one and a half yards, as it forms a small bow at the back. The loops on this hat can be made without the aid of wire, as they are so loose, but the hat has the hat itself, and also because the loops are not quite so deep, forming a sort of wreath around the hat. You first make the box-pleat in front, then form the bow loop, and after that the side loop, left side first, drawing the ribbon across the front without cutting, and continuing the loops on the right side. Regarding the high loops of the left side, the knotted tie-over has one of its ends in the pointed end, and the other starts the side loop, as you see. There is much in making what may be termed a "natural" tie (the bow there are always successful substitutes in it, besides leaving the ribbon uncut).

Of course the ribbon cannot be left usual interest in seeing the new 1897 models is shown by the fact that the hat surrounds them wherever they are displayed.

Running the Gauntlet.

"Running the gauntlet" is the latest recreation among wheelmen.

The idea of the game is not especially new for the hero of Cooper's novels used to have the gauntlet experience as part of the programme of his captivity among the Indians, but its application to cycling and cyclism is decidedly unique. The wheelmen are always looking for some new scheme to give zest to their pleasure, and many of them think they've found just the thing now. Plain scoring soon grows monotonous, as well as tiresome, and anything that diverts the mind either as a game or a race is welcomed. That's the reason running the gauntlet has the call at present, and that's why hard switches are in considerable demand.

The gauntlet runners start about 50 feet away from where the switches are waiting with poised whips.

Down comes the intrepid wheelman, heads down and bent low, clearing one after another, and scorching like the wind. If they pay back,

THE RICHEST PRESIDENT.

Mr. Cleveland Will Be a Very Wealthy Man When He Retires.

During what will be known in the United States as "the Cleveland era of hard times," the present President of that country has saved in those twelve years over $1,000,000. This alone shows what Mr. Cleveland's income has been for twelve years, ending March 4, 1897.

High years as President, at $50,000 per year, he has received $600,000.

Four years' late partnership in New York, at $25,000 per year, he has received $100,000.

Referee fees earned during four years of office, at $5,000 per year, he has received $20,000.

Total of these three sources, $720,000.

Present value of Gray Gables, at $20,000, he has received $20,000.

Yachts and boats, at $5,000 per year, he has received $25,000.

Present value of Woolley, at $5,000, he has received $5,000.

Present value of property, at $5,000, he has received $5,000.

THE CLEVELAND WINTER HOME.

President Cleveland when he retires from office on the 4th of next March will be the richest President that ever left the Executive Mansion of the United States. He will carry an ample fortune with him into private life, all of which has been accumulated during the past twelve years.

When he leaves the White House, the President will have the office of President "in a way that would put the eyes of most of his predecessors on the ground."

He will have a very ample and inexhaustible income. Cleveland, then, will be able to retire into private life. The reason for this is that he has accumulated a fortune of $1,000,000.

General Grant the salary of the President was only $50,000 a year, and the President was obliged to pay many expenses of the White House which are now charged to the expense of maintenance by the Government.

When Congress raised the President's salary to $100,000 for the first time, it was possible for a President to save a respectable sum during his term of office. If not, indeed, to take away from him a large little fortune for his old age.

General Grant spent all of his salary during his first term of office. He had a large family, and his family and entertained freely, and when the end of the year came around he was obliged to go into the White House with a second term of office.

The President's pay had been raised as part of the salary grab, and all of it was expended during his term of office. He had a large family, and his family and entertained freely, and when the end of the year came around he was obliged to go into the White House with a second term of office.

General Harrison was much more economical. He lived with much of the simplicity of a successful Indiana lawyer, but he was more liberal in his expenditure of entertainment than General Hayes. The necessities of his position as President with a considerable number of relatives always about him, obliged him to spend at least $100,000 of his salary.

When General Harrison retired he is believed to have saved about $100,000, and this is added to property which he possessed before he became President. Making a comfortable fortune.

These accumulations of property are the result of the President's salary, and the fact that the President is not allowed to receive any other income during his term of office.

When General Harrison retired he is believed to have saved about $100,000, and this is added to property which he possessed before he became President. Making a comfortable fortune.

These accumulations of property are the result of the President's salary, and the fact that the President is not allowed to receive any other income during his term of office.

Mr. Cleveland's income during his term of office was $1,000,000, and he has saved $1,000,000. He will carry an ample fortune with him into private life, all of which has been accumulated during the past twelve years.

When he leaves the White House, the President will have the office of President "in a way that would put the eyes of most of his predecessors on the ground."

He will have a very ample and inexhaustible income. Cleveland, then, will be able to retire into private life. The reason for this is that he has accumulated a fortune of $1,000,000.

General Grant the salary of the President was only $50,000 a year, and the President was obliged to pay many expenses of the White House which are now charged to the expense of maintenance by the Government.

When Congress raised the President's salary to $100,000 for
